

January 14, 2010

For Immediate Release

Contact: Lowman Henry
Lhenry@lincolninstitute.org
(717) 671-1864

2010 PA Leadership Conference Panels Announced

Focus will be on taking back our state and nation

(Harrisburg, PA) -- Building a winning coalition, Pennsylvania's budget woes, education, corruption, and marriage will be among the featured issues discussed at the 2010 Pennsylvania Leadership Conference to be held April 16th and 17th at the Four Points by Sheraton near Harrisburg.

The 2010 Pennsylvania Leadership Conference is the premiere annual gathering of public policy conservatives from throughout the state. Among the featured speakers at this year's conference will be Fox News analyst Dick Morris, Phyllis Schlafly of Eagle Forum and Human Events political editor John Gizzi.

At the heart of the conference are issue panels, and this year's panel topics and moderators will be as follows:

Keynote Panel: Building a Coalition that Wins
Moderator: Gary Sutton, WSBA Radio

Beyond Corruption: Transparency, Accountability and Reform
Moderator: Chris Freind, Columnist

Marriage and More
Moderator: Michael Geer, PA Family Institute

State Spending: Going for Broke
Moderator: Gene Barr, PA Chamber of Business & Industry

Polishing the Apple: Improving Public Education
Moderator: Simon Campbell, Stop Teacher Strikes, Inc.

In addition to the issue panels and featured speakers, this year's conference will include a three-hour training session on how to run for public office. Over 30 organizations will exhibit providing conference attendees with many networking opportunities.

Registration for the 2010 Pennsylvania Leadership Conference is now open on-line at www.paleadershipconference.org.